

Mei-Writing Open Workshop Series 2017

June Workshop:

Choosing the Right Academic Conference and Getting your Proposal Accepted

迷っていませんか、どの研究学会に行くべき？どうやったら発表できるの？学会の選択と研究発表への成功のコツ教えます！

Presenting at academic conferences is a crucial step for students as they work to become professionals in their fields. However, finding the right conference and getting a proposal accepted can be daunting tasks. This interactive workshop discusses the basics of conference presentations, including the pros and cons of various types of conferences and sessions. It focuses on the unique challenges of writing a proposal abstract, including describing the nature and significance of your research within a strict word limit. All students and faculty members are invited to attend and practice drafting a proposal abstract based on their current research interests.

和訳:DetailsのリンクまたはQRコードを使用してください！

Speaker: Kyle Nuske (Designated Associate Professor)
Time: 1 June, 16:30 – 18:00 (Thursday)
Place: Central Library of Nagoya University,
Discovery Square (2F)
名古屋大学中央図書館ディスカバリスクエア
Details: <http://meiwriting.ilas.nagoya-u.ac.jp/workshop.html>

Free for all graduate students, faculty, or staff of Nagoya University. Guests from outside are welcome, but please register for this workshop by sending (1) your name and (2) your affiliation (name of your uni or company) for easy access to the library by May 26 (Friday) to meiwriting@ilas.nagoya-u.ac.jp

名古屋大学ライティングセンター
Pursuing Clear & Convincing Ideas in Writing
アカデミック・ライティング教育部門
名古屋大学教養教育院

