

Nagoya University Institute of Liberal Arts and Sciences
Integrated International Education Center Faculty Recruitment Announcement

The Institute of Liberal Arts and Sciences (Kyoyo-kyoiku-in), Nagoya University, invites applications for a faculty member in the Integrated International Education Center as outlined below.

1. Position and Number of Openings

Designated Professor, Designated Associate Professor, or Designated Lecturer (one position)

2. Job Description

The Institute of Liberal Arts and Sciences (ILAS), established in December 2001, serves as the headquarters for planning, implementing, and evaluating the liberal arts and sciences courses with participation from faculty across the university.

On April 1, 2023, the Integrated International Education Center (IIEC) was established to promote the liberal arts and sciences education for students enrolled in English-medium degree programs (G30 Programs) and to advance international collaborative education between international students and Japanese students in regular programs.

Furthermore, as part of the MEXT project “Future-Leading and Advanced Graduate Schools” selected in FY2025, Nagoya University is promoting the internationalization of undergraduate education and fostering highly skilled doctoral-level human resources capable of thriving in diverse fields. To strengthen English proficiency as a foundation for this initiative, we aim to introduce CLIL (Content and Language Integrated Learning) courses that bridge specialized education in English.

The successful candidate will be responsible for planning, designing, and implementing CLIL courses at ILAS. Specific duties include:

(Immediately after employment)

- Designing the curriculum for CLIL courses for university students.
- Teaching CLIL courses (including developing teaching resources and collaborative implementation with departmental faculty).
- Supporting departmental faculty as well as planning and implementing faculty development (FD) related to CLIL.
- Other duties related to IIEC as instructed by the Division Head.

※ Depending on the candidate’s area of expertise, there may be opportunities to teach additional courses at the Institute of Liberal Arts and Sciences after consultation.

※ Teaching load: maximum 8 courses per year (one course equals one 90-minute lecture per week for 15 weeks).

(Scope of change)

- Duties designated by Tokai National Higher Education and Research System.
- However, in principle, changes in duties will not be mandated against one's will.

3. Work Location

(Immediately after employment)

Chikusa Ward, Nagoya City, Aichi Prefecture

(Scope of change)

Work location designated by Tokai National Higher Education and Research System.

However, in principle, changes in work location will not be mandated against one's will.

4. Qualifications

- Minimum requirement: Master’s degree; Ph.D. or equivalent research experience is preferred.
- Ability to work collaboratively and demonstrate commitment to student education.
- Knowledge of CLIL education; experience in implementing CLIL education is preferred.
